How to read stitch orders!

> The number on the pattern means the color number, and the figure in parentheses ( ) means the number of flosses.
Example: (2) is 2 strands.
> There are lines where Satin stitch is done.
They mean a stitching direction.

(*) All stitches are Satin stitch unless otherwise specified.
(*) All stitches are 2 strands unless otherwise specified.
(*) ★ means Lazy daisy stitch+Straight stitch.
(*) The French knot stitch in this design is wrapped twice.
(*) Sequential numbers ①, ② and ③ on the pattern mean a stitching order.

Start and End stitch

The ends of the thread at the beginning and end of the stitch are tangled with 3 to 4 stitches on the back (wrong) side.

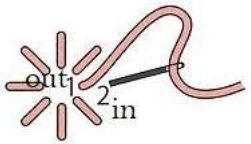
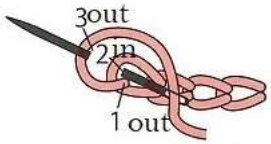
Embroidery Stitch Guide

Straight stitch



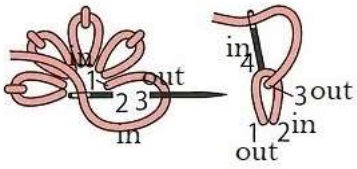
Come up at 1.
Take the needle down to 2 and insert.

Chain stitch



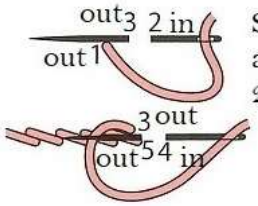
Put the thread on the needle that exits from 1, enters 2, and exits from 3, and pulls out the needle.

Lazy daisy stitch



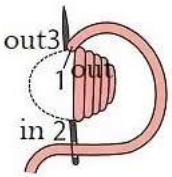
Put out the needle at 1, scoop the cloth from 2 & 3, and wrap it around the needle like Chain stitch, and stop the loop at 4.
Continue working around the edge of the loop.

Outline stitch



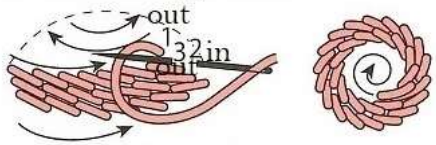
Stitch from left to right according to the design.
2&5 are the same hole.

Satin stitch



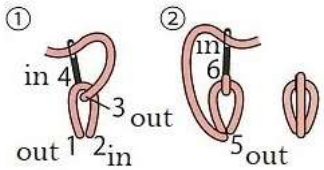
Stitch evently along the lines of the design, so that the threads do not overlap.
It is round shape, stitch it from the center to the outside.

Outline filling stitch



Reciprocate the outline stitch according to the design and fill in the surface.
Stitch direction and pitch of the stitches are aligned,

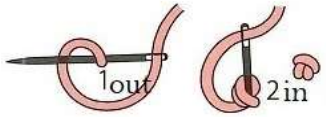
Lazy daisy + Straight stitch



① Put out the needle in 1, scoop the cloth with 2 & 3, put a thread on the needle and stop the loop with 4. (Lazy daisy stitch)

② Put out the needle from base of 5 of Lazy daisy stitch and put the needle in 6 of the tip.

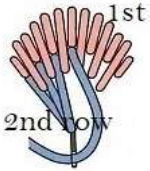
French knot stitch



*Twisted 2 in this kit

Start at 1. Hold the thread taut and twist (wrap) it twice the needle, then pull it to tighten the loops.

Long & Short stitch



Repeat long and short straight stitches from the center of the 1st row to outside.
From the 2nd row onwards, use straight stitches of uniform length.
